Steps to Play

1. Move around and stretch. Recommended warm-up exercises can be found at www.ThinkFun.com/YogaGames.
2. The youngest player begins play and chooses one of three moves:
  - PLAY YOUR OWN CARD: Place 1 of your 7 cards face-up in front of you, and perform the illustrated pose for 10 seconds.
  - PLAY THE TOP CARD IN THE DISCARD PILE: Take the top card from the Discard Pile, place it face-up in front of you, and perform the illustrated pose for 10 seconds. Discard one of your cards by placing it face-up on top of the Discard Pile.
  - DISCARD A CARD: Place one of your 7 cards face-up at the top of the Discard Pile and take a new card from the Draw Pile.

3. If a player successfully holds a given pose for 10 seconds, he or she gets to put the card in a Collection Pile. If a player is unable to perform the pose for 10 seconds, the card must remain in his or her hand and cannot be added to the Collection Pile.

NOTE: At the end of each turn, the cards in a player's hand and his/her Collection Pile should total seven.

4. The game continues with the next player on the left, and players continue to choose to play a card from their own hand, play the top card from the Discard Pile, or discard a card.
5. If you are the first player with seven cards in your Collection Pile – YOU WIN!

NOTE: Each Yoga Pose Card can only be applied to one goal per game. Even if a Yoga Pose Card satisfies both goals on your Mission Card, it cannot count toward both goals.

About the Inventors

This game was invented by Upside Down Games. Their story is one based in yoga destiny. It all began when two Argentinians – Matt, a yoga-loving lawyer specializing in non-profit work, and Juan, a yoga instructor – met in a yoga class. They shared not only their passion for yoga, but also their desire to spread the joys and benefits of yoga to children, creating a new generation of 'yogis.' After much brainstorming and testing, their vision became a reality, with a full line of award-winning Upside Down Games!
